Seakart 335 to make its UK debut at the South Coast Boat Show

Combining the speed and excitement of a jetski with the safety and comfort of a RIB, the high end Seakart 335 will make its UK debut at MDL's South Coast Boat Show guided by Raymarine at its flagship Ocean Village Marina, 7-9 May 2021.

Ideal as a versatile tender for a yacht owner or for family weekend fun, this 3.5m by 2m recreational craft comfortably seats five people.

Coming with a choice of two 4-stroke Yamaha jet engines, 110bhp and 180bhp, the Seakart 335 can reach maximum speeds of 45mph and 65mph respectively. Designed to be incredibly easy to operate, the Seakart offers power and control in equal measures.

The Seakart 335 is just one of the exciting line-up of global boating brands that will be exhibiting at the South Coast Boat Show in 2021, both on the water and in the new landside exhibition area.

Designed for serious buyers who wish to experience a wide range of high-quality product in exclusive surroundings, the South Coast Boat Show has already attracted some of the marine industry's most innovative power and sail brands, as well as sponsorship from Raymarine, Towergate Insurance and Inspiration Marine.

Those already signed up to exhibit include: Beneteau Power and Sail, Lagoon Catamarans, Prestige, Axopar, British Boat Club, Bavaria, Fischer Panda, FlexiSail, Chaparral, Finnmaster, Dehler, Hanse, Hylas, Moody, JDK Marine, Grand RIBS, Fountaine Pajot, Broadblue, Pure Latitude Boat Club, Raymarine, Sargo, Saxdor, Jeanneau power and sail, Excess Catamarans, Seaward, Hallberg Rassy and Dufour.

Visitor attendance at the show is by appointment only, maintaining quality of leads for the exhibitors as well as helping keep people covid-secure.

With spaces to exhibit now limited, if you would like to showcase your brand in front of serious buyers who are looking to purchase a brand-new vessel immediately, or within the next 6-18 months, contact MDL Marinas via a.millar@mdlmarinas.co.uk or visit <https://www.mdlmarinas.co.uk/events/south-coast-boat-show/> to register your interest.
