

News ReleaseFor Immediate Release*18 March 2024*Typhoon International appoints Galway Maritime as its new Ireland leisure distributor

Typhoon International, one of the world's leading drysuit and marine equipment manufacturers, has expanded its reach with its new appointment of Galway Maritime as the company's leisure distributor for Ireland.

Selling a huge variety of marine products, Galway Maritime are the perfect choice as Typhoon's Ireland distributor of its leisure products across a range of marine-based activities, including sailing, surfing and kayaking.

"We are delighted to be joining forces with such a globally renowned brand," says Pierce Purcell, Galway Maritime Managing Director. "The Typhoon range is extensive and full of quality products that our customer base will love to work with."

Key sales channels in Ireland will include activity centres, surf schools, kayak hire centres and the dinghy and yacht sailing communities.

"As a key player in the leisure watersports market, we are always looking at ways to maximise our market share," says Kevin Coulthard, Managing Director, Typhoon International. "Galway Maritime's long links and proven track record in this market will help propel the Typhoon brand in Ireland to even greater heights."
