MDL Marinas launches fuel-saving offer for boaters

MDL Marinas has announced a fuel-saving boost for boaters this spring, giving Otium members 10p off every litre of fuel at MDL fuel stations throughout April.

The promotion coincides with the start of the boating season and the Easter period, when many boaters return to the water after winter.

The offer will be available across MDL's network of 12 fuel stations, with more than 36,000 Otium members set to benefit. Members will also continue to earn Otium loyalty points on fuel purchases during the promotion.

Otium is MDL Marinas' loyalty programme, designed to reward those who spend more time on the water. Members collect points across MDL locations, which can be redeemed on future purchases including fuel, berthing and other services.

"The start of the boating season and Easter are always exciting times as more people head back out on the water," says Daniel Horsley, Operations Director, MDL Marinas. By offering 10p off every litre of fuel this April, we hope it helps our members get out and make the most of the season ahead.

"At MDL we do all we can to help our customers enjoy more time on the water, and this offer is just one way we can support them."

The offer is available to Otium members refuelling at MDL fuel stations throughout April.
