Elite Yacht Covers announces new lease at MDL's Hamble Point Marina

MDL Marinas is pleased to announce Elite Yacht Covers has signed a new five-year lease at Hamble Point Marina, with operations set to begin this month. The move marks a significant expansion for the yacht canvas company as it establishes a dedicated South Coast base within one of the UK's most active and influential marine centres.

Elite Yacht Covers will occupy a 618 sq ft unit at the marina, sharing the new office space with White Dot Sailing. This strategic relocation strengthens Elite Yacht Covers' presence across the UK and enhances access to a broad and diverse customer base.

"The fact that there is currently no other specialist cover maker on-site, combined with the variety of marine services already available at the marina, made Hamble Point the ideal location for our expansion," says Noah di Paola, South Coast Manager at Elite Yacht Covers. "Through this new location, we will also be looking to support superyachts entering Ocean Village with our subsidiary, Elite Super Yacht Covers."

MDL Marinas welcomes the addition of Elite Yacht Covers as part of its ongoing commitment to supporting high-quality marine businesses across its network.

"We're thrilled to have Elite Yacht Covers joining us at Hamble Point," says Marina Manager, Dominic Brown. "Their reputation for craftsmanship and customer service aligns perfectly with MDL's focus on delivering exceptional marine experiences. The team will be a valuable addition to the diverse cluster of specialists already operating at the marina."

Situated at the mouth of the River Hamble, Hamble Point Marina is renowned for its concentration of marine expertise, providing an ideal environment for businesses looking to reach a vibrant sailing community and commercial client base.
